Stung

One day I met a maiden fair,
With golden locks beyond compare;
I wrote an ode upon her hair,
Enthralled quite by her tresses rare.
I lost my heart, but didn't care.
I called one fatal morning where
She lived, to lay my secret bare.
All unannounced by trumpets blare.
To go again I'd never dare,
For when I met her on the stair
Her charming tresses were not there;
She'd left them hanging on a chair,
Somewhere.

—Maysville Ledger.

Delicious Menu.

The ladies of the Central Baptist church will serve the following menu on Saturday in Miss Lizzie Taylor's store room:

Oyster soup      Roast chicken
Hot rolls          Coffee
Custard and cake

Delightful Dance

The Washington Birthday dance given by the young men of the city at the Auditorium Wednesday evening was the source of much pleasure and enjoyment.

The music was furnished by Saxton and Trost's Orchestra, of Lexington.

From the first dance, which opened with the alluring strains of "O, You Beautiful Doll," to the last echo of "Home, Sweet Home," the floor was covered with beautifully gowned maidens and stalwart gentlemen, swaying gracefully to the music.

The dance extended to the wee small hours of the morning.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Miss Letitia Warren, of Danville; Mr. Graham Young and Mr. Shedd, of North Middletown; Mr. Wilmet Prewitt, of Mt. Sterling; Mr. Cox, of Lexington; Messrs. John Day and Clifford Hagemeyer, of State College; Miss Bessie Byrd, of Lexington; Mr. Jason Redmond, of Paris; Mr. Bryan Ballard, of Lexington; Mr. Joe Davis, of Paris; Mr. Wm. Evans, of Richmond; Mr. Harrison Scott, of Lexington; Mr. Gifford Brock, of Epperson School House; Misses Catherine Withers, of Lexington; Jessie Bundren, of Lexington; Annitta Carranza, of Spain, and Ruth Scott, of Lexington.

Reception Postponed

The reception which was to have been tendered by the Winchester W. C. T. U. to Mrs. Nora B. Taylor, State Treasurer, has been postponed on account of the inclement weather.

Miss Christine Bramblette, of Paris, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Robbins.

Mr. George Lancaster has returned

HOW COLD AFFECTS THE KIDNEYS.

Avoid taking cold if your kidneys are sensitive. Cold congests the kidneys, throws too much work upon them, and weakens their action. Serious kidney trouble and even Bright's disease may result. Strengthen your kidneys, get rid of the pain and soreness, build them up by the timely use of Foley Kidney Pills. They will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more.

For Sale by All Druggists.
